25X1 1. A dismantling brigade is now working in the remaining factory
25X1 installations of Junkers, Dessau.

2. A new liaison office TONT (sic) was established to maintain contact with the plants in Russia and subcontract offices
still in the Russian Zone.

3. Since the dismantled material was grouped and shipped in three categories, it is believed that Junkers personnel in Russia is working in three groups concentrating on turbines, motors, and aircraft construction respectively.

4. Two test planes, V-1 and V-2, are now 15 km south of Moscow;
the V-3 is en route to the experimental station for aviation research (ZAGI) in Moscow for crash and resistance tests.
